Two special exhibits: Birth of Impressionism and Masterpieces from the Musee d'Orsay puts forth nearly 100 works of art by the famous masters who called France their home during the mid-19th century. From their midst arose Impressionism - one of the most original and recognizable of all artistic styles. This exhibition begins with paintings by naturalist artist Courbet who painted scenes as they appear in life, and presents American expatriate James McNeil's "Whistler's Mother" and works by Manet, Monet, Renoir and Sisley are on view as well. The de Young is the only venue in the world to host this exhibit.. Spend the afternoon at the Legion of Honor and be transported to Paris circa 1874. Stroll among the displays and feel like you are walking down the streets in Impressionist Paris, the City of Light. Enjoy lunch on your own at the de Young Museum. Depart at 8:00 am and return to at approximately 5:00 pm.
